ERIN·EYES

CLARE VALLEY

Steve Wiblin's Erin Eyes 2014 'Blarney Stone' Shiraz

A fine vintage for Shiraz in the Clare Valley with a good depth of colour and fruit flavours. Aged in 100% French Oak half was from mixed forests which imparts cedar characters and half from the Troncais forest which adds some sweeter characters. Blended together it makes a wonderful Shiraz.

I called it after the famous 'Blarney Stone' for it's a wine that speaks for itself.

Colour - Deep red.

Aroma - A spicy nose of black and white pepper with lavender and cinnamon.

Palate - Chock full of flavours ranging from blackberry and plum to clove and cinnamon. The combinations of oaks give a firm tannin structure with a hint of vanillin lift.

Drink with anything.
